

BREATHING IS NOW A BREEZE™

Introducing AirWave, the next wave in respiratory protection—a revolutionary step forward from today's disposable respirators. Its patent pending wave technology allows easier breathing for cool comfort, providing the protection you need all day long. Plus, it delivers on the Moldex commitment—comfortable, durable respirators that increase compliance and decrease costs.

AirWave is available in a classic 2-strap (4200 series) and also in the 4600 series which features another Moldex exclusive, the hangable and adjustable cloth SmartStrap®.
